"Your

Carpets

Wear

The

Best"

"For some reason or other your carpets wear better than those I purchase elsewhere," is the remark quite frequently made to us by customers who have had an opportunity of testing this question.

During the past five years we have made a special study of the manufacture of carpets, to the end that we might detect the slightest mixture of shoddy with new wool and the information thus acquired has enabled us to select for our customers only such goods as were well scoured and free from adulterations. We think this is the reason why our carpets have been found to wear unusually well.

The Evening Session.

CHICAGO, June 5.—The convention was called to order at 7:45 p. m. and the chairman announced that under the rules adopted, the order of business is the presentation of a candidate for president.

Mr. Dutcher, of New York, asked for unanimous consent to offer a resolution: "That the committee on seats be directed to issue 500 tickets of admission to veteran soldiers and sailors, to be distributed through the chairman of the several state delegations." Adopted.

After the national committee had been filled, M. J. Norton, the secretary, then proceeded to call the roll of states for nominations.

Mr. Brandegee, of Connecticut, nominated General Hawley; Hon. Sidney A. Cullom presented the name of John A. Logan and General Prentiss, of Missouri, seconded the nomination; Judge West, of Ohio, nominated James G. Blaine, which was seconded by C. K. Davis, of Minnesota, and endorsed by Galusha A. Grow, of Pennsylvania, Goodloe, of Kentucky, and Theodore Platt, of New York; Martin I. Townsend presented the name of Mr. Arthur, which was seconded by Bingham, of Pennsylvania, and endorsed by Winton, of North Carolina, and Pinchback, of Louisiana; Judge Foraker, of Ohio, named John Sherman, which was seconded by Judge Holt, of Kentucky, and Gov. John D. Long, of Mississippi, named Senator Edmunds, which was seconded by George William Curtis.

No other states responded to the call for nominations and the convention adjourned until 11 a. m.

To-day's Proceedings.

BEFORE THE MEETING.

One hour and a half before the time for the convention to assemble vast crowds of people were in front of the entrance waiting for the doors to open. It seemed as if there had been no change from last night, when the thousands demanded admittance to the halls, which are already crowded. The doorman, policemen and sergeant-at-arms exercised great patience and there was little irritation.

The rumor this morning in the air is that the independents, alarmed at the strength of the Blaine demonstration last night, have determined to cast the votes of Massachusetts and Vermont on the second ballot for William Tecumseh Sherman. This rumor is spreading rapidly and is creating a lively interest. In response to an inquiry by a reporter, Mr. Alexander Sullivan, president of the Irish National League of America, stated that he and his colleagues on the committee appointed to address the committee on resolutions felt profoundly grateful to the committee for its courteous, patient attention and not only for the insertion of the plank asked for, but for the good will and manifest sincerity with which it was done.

The entrance to the convention at 10:30 is so blocked with people that it is impossible for ticket-holders and members to obtain entrance. A message has just been sent to the chief of police, asking him to send all the help possible to assist in preserving order, and it was done.

THE CONVENTION IN SESSION.

It was twenty minutes past the hour for the meeting when the gavel fell and the chairman announced that the convention would be opened by prayer by Rev. Dr. Scudder of the Second Presbyterian church.

The convention proceeded to ballot on a candidate for president. The first ballot resulted as follows:

GROWING EXCITED.

2:15 p. m.—Blaine's friends claim Illinois. A total vote of ninety will go to him on the next ballot. There is great excitement.

2:20 p. m.—The confusion increases. Dozens of the delegates are trying to get the chairman's recognition.

2:22 p. m.—The chairman is vainly trying to restore order. A motion to adjourn to 7:30 was lost.

2:28 p. m.—New York is trying to get the call of states on an adjournment. The Blaine men are resisting.

2:32 p. m.—It has been decided to call the roll on the question of adjournment to 7:30 p. m.

2:35 p. m.—Illinois votes 15 against adjournment and 29 for.

The vote to adjourn was lost. The result was received with the wildest excitement.

HARRISON WITHDRAWN.

The Indiana delegation had a meeting last evening at 5 o'clock, at which it was determined not to present the name of General Harrison as a presidential candidate. Colonel Thompson made an address to the effect that in the present temper of the convention there could be no outside support to speak of, and the nomination of General Harrison would place him in an awkward position.

After the colonel's speech, the proposition not to name Senator Harrison was unanimously agreed to, with the exception of General Williams.

NEWSPAPER COMMENTS.

The Tribune says: "Last night's demonstration and vote on adjournment shows Blaine's great strength and indicates his nomination."

The Inter Ocean says: "The situation is practically unchanged. It shows that the southern delegates remain firm to Arthur and that Blaine's forces stick with great tenacity; that Sherman, Logan and Edmunds men are waiting, and hoping for a break in Arthur or Blaine's forces."

The Times refrains from predictions and says: "None of the nominating speeches equaled those of Conkling and Garfield four years ago. It is generally thought a result will not be reached today unless there should be a second session. The Blaine men predict his nomination on the second or third ballot."

[Bulletin.]

INDIANA'S VOTE.

11:50.—It is stated that Indiana will cast nineteen votes for Blaine and eleven for Arthur on the first ballot, to get as many as possible for Harrison on the second ballot. The Blaine men have determined to vote down any resolution to adjourn until the result is reached.

LOCAL NEWS.

The coming dime show is billed. There will be market-to-morrow morning.

Work is now progressing on the fourth story of the Masonic temple. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hackett, of Utica, N. Y., are in the city guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Griebel.

The grand jury did not consider the feeder canal condemnation scheme. It was simply a bug-a-boo.

The Library Hall Literary and Dramatic society will not give another entertainment until next fall.

The grand jury has been discharged until the last of the month, when they will be called together again.

Manager Simonson has as yet booked no attractions for the Temple opera house. His assistant is still in New York City.

A sign is displayed in the criminal court: "Spectators and officers must not spit on this carpet." Bailiff John Hench enforces the rule.

The old App building, opposite THE SENTINEL office, was razed to-day. A fine three-story business block goes up on the site at once.

County Clerk Maier will order the superior court adjourned from day to day until the vacancy on the bench is filled by Governor Porter.

To-day Sheriff Schiefer continued the sale of Henry Bowman's notion stock. It is feared Bowman may lose his reason on account of the loss of his property.

The grand jury adjourned this morning, after indicting John Bazire for petit larceny and Henry Leiminger for entering a Wabash railroad car and robbery.

City Assessor Jocquel has finished the work of assessing personal property and the real estate assessment will be completed in a few days. Mr. Jocquel will report to the council next Tuesday evening.

The High school excursion to Rome City to-day was composed of the bellies of the schools room, all of whom were quite fascinating. Envious reporters and many other gentlemen gazed sadly after them.

The clerk and cook of the St. Charles hotel had a lively scrimmage yesterday. The latter got the worst of the row and had the clerk arrested. He was fined $11.90 which was paid by the proprietress and the cook discharged.

The indications for the lower lake region as reported to THE SENTINEL by the weather bureau at Washington are as follows: Fair weather, followed by local rains on Saturday; variable winds generally from east to south; slight fall in temperature.

Several citizens have stretched barbed wires about their premises. A little daughter of Lot Dickson ran against the wires a day or two ago and lacerated her face pretty badly. The officers have been asked to prevent the use of barbed wires in the city.

The members of the bar in this city are circulating a petition requesting the appointment of Hon. John Morris to fill the place on the superior bench made vacant by the death of Judge Worden. We are informed that the members of the bar are a unit for either Judge Morris or Hon. Walpole C. Colerick, and that should either one be a candidate, that the one chosen would be elected regardless of party. THE SENTINEL is always in favor of putting the most competent men we have on the bench, and we hope there will be no mistake made at this time. Either Hon. Walpole C. Colerick or Judge Morris should have the appointment.

The Convention Nominates the Tattooed Statesman From Maine on the Fourth Ballot.

Amid the Greatest Excitement Ever Witnessed in Any Convention—Illinois Changes to Blaine.

A Short History of the Nominee of the Republican Convention of 1884.

Still at Work.

CHICAGO, June 6, 3:17 p. m.—The result of the third ballot was announced at 2:10. The gains made on the Blaine vote and the understanding that the Logan vote would probably be transferred to Blaine, produced another storm of cheering and wild enthusiasm for Blaine. Bingham, of Pennsylvania, Wm. W. Phelps, of New Jersey and one or two colored delegates endeavored to get a hearing and wildly vociferated and gesticulated without succeeding in being heard, their voices being drowned in the tumultuous yells, cheers and demands for a call of the roll. Not deterred by their failure, Roosevelt, of New York, carried away by the excitement, got upon his seat, waving his arms and appeared as if he was saying something, but not a word was heard from him.

The convention refused to adjourn by a vote of 266 to 455.

The announcement of the vote caused a great cheering, waving of hats and handkerchiefs.

Finally at 2:30 the taking of the FOURTH BALLOT was begun. The changes from the third ballot are as follows: Before the vote of Alabama was given there was another uproar, in which Dutcher, Roosevelt and another New York delegate took prominent parts. It arose upon the technical point that a motion to take a recess had been made and had been decided by the chair in the negative, although call had been made for a vote by states. At last a Blaine delegate appealed to his friends to have the vote on the recess taken by states and at 2:30 the vote by states began. The Illinois delegation requested a few moments for consultation as to its vote and then it was announced as 29 to 15. The vote was challenged, showing that it was regarded as important and the result of the polling of the Illinois delegation was for a recess by 31 against 13. The vote of New York was polled and resulted: Ayes, 41; nays, 29. The vote of Pennsylvania was polled and was: Ayes, 11; nays, 48. Tennessee gave twenty-four votes in the negative, so that although the vote still goes on the motion for a recess is defeated. The result of the vote on the motion for a recess was: Ayes, 364; nays 451. The announcement was hailed with applause as a Blaine triumph. It was a long time before order was restored sufficiently to proceed with business. An Ohio delegate proposed to nominate Blaine by acclamation, but Burroughs, of Michigan, insisted that the ballot should go on. Finally at 3:15 the convention proceeded to the fourth ballot.

The indications are that Blaine's vote will exceed 500 on this ballot.

The Illinois roll call on delegates was demanded amid great excitement.

The Illinois dispatch from Logan was offered, but the convention refused to hear it. Illinois cast her entire vote for Blaine.

Colburn then withdrew the name of Logan and cast thirty-four votes of Illinois for Blaine. The change in Illinois from Logan to Blaine made Blaine's vote 414.

3:21 p. m.—The fourth ballot is started. Alabama gives Blaine a gain of 6, Arthur's loss.

3:23 p. m.—Foraker moved that Blaine be nominated by acclamation. Roosevelt demanded the call of the roll. Great excitement. Foraker withdrew the motion in order to save time.

3:28 p. m.—A call of the Florida delegates was demanded.

3:29 p. m.—Florida gives Blaine a gain of 2, Arthur's loss.

Illinois vote, with Blaine's preceding votes, gives him 414, a majority of the convention.

The changes of the fourth ballot were as follows: Alabama—Blaine gains 6; Arthur loses 6; Logan loses 1. Arkansas—No change. California—No change. Colorado—No change. Connecticut—No change. Delaware—No change. Florida—Blaine gains 2; Arthur loses 2. Georgia—No change.

Illinois—Blaine gains 34, Arthur gains 3; Logan gains 1. Indiana—Blaine gains 30. Kansas—Blaine gains 3. Kentucky—Blaine gains 4, upon the roll of delegates being demanded. Louisiana—Blaine gains 6. Maryland—Blaine gains 4. Massachusetts—Blaine gains 2, upon a call of delegates being demanded. Michigan—Blaine gains 8. Missouri—Cast her entire vote for Blaine. New Jersey—Blaine gains 6. New York—Blaine gains 1. Ohio—Blaine, 46 votes.

4:22 p. m.—Blaine was nominated by the vote of Pennsylvania.

LOGAN FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

4:15 p. m.—It is stated that Logan will be offered the vice-presidency.

DISPATCH FROM LOGAN.

The following dispatch was received a few moments ago:

WASHINGTON, June 6.—To S. M. McCollum, chairman of the Illinois delegation, Chicago: The republicans of the state that must be relied upon to elect the president having so strongly shown a preference for Mr. Blaine, I deem it my duty not to stand in the way of the people's choice, and recommend my friends to assist in his nomination. [Signed.] JOHN A. LOGAN.

THE NOMINEE.

James Gillespie Blaine, of Maine, was born in Pennsylvania in 1830. He only received a common school education but soon acquired enough knowledge to teach school. Later he removed to Maine where he edited a newspaper and was elected a member of the Maine legislature from 1857-'62. He was elected to congress in 1862 and served until 1876, being speaker from 1869 to 1875. In 1876 he was appointed to the United States senate, where he served until James A. Garfield selected him as secretary of state. Shortly after Mr. Garfield's death he resigned the office and devoted his time to writing a 20-year history of congress, now on sale. In the convention of '76 he was the leading republican candidate for president until the seventh ballot, when he received 351 of the 735 votes, but was defeated by Rutherford B. Hayes, of Ohio. In 1880 he was again a candidate, but in the midst of that memorable struggle he threw his forces to James A. Garfield, who rewarded him as above noted. Blaine in his youth affiliated with the Roman Catholic church, but is not now connected with any.

Number 537 drew the crazy quilt at the hospital fair.

Joseph Gorrell, city editor of the Bluffton Banner, is in the city.

The auction of the Bohman stock will be continued by Sheriff Scheifer to-morrow.

W. S. Oppenheim and Harvey McCracken ate at Bluffton on a fishing expedition.

Ex-Councilman John Wessel telegraphed to-day the safe arrival of his party at Hamburg.

The county commissioners allowed bills this morning and considered a number of ditch cases this afternoon.

HITTING HIM HARD.

The Counsel for the State Knocking Charley Butler's Inanity Plea Out of Time-- The Murderer's Proposal of Marriage.

The interest in the Butler murder trial
at Columbia City has not abated a bit.
The prosecuting attorneys are still introducing testimony to prove the insanity plea set up by the defense, fallacious. The state attorneys are doing admirably and there is little left of Butler's insanity record to tell the tale. The case will go to the jury next week and the sentence is certain to be death. Charley Butler's correspondence with his dead wife is published and among the list is the one in which he asked the hand of the murdered woman in marriage. The letter is as follows:

COLUMBIUS, O., Aug. 27, 1877.

DEAR ABBA: While I have a few leisure moments I will spend them in writing to you, for there is none besides you, nor never can be, that has my affections as have you. Now, Abba, I am going to ask you a question, hoping you will answer in the affirmative. Now, Abba, of course you know I have been a wild boy, but I have sowed all my wild oats, and now I want you to be mine and I will be yours while life shall last. Now if this meets your approbation, I will be happy for all time to come and I will try to make you as happy as myself, for God knows that you are the only one I ever saw that won my affections. Now, my beloved girl, if you conclude to have me, write and tell me if all is right. I will come out next Sunday and we will talk the matter over. I would like for you to sound the old folks in regard to our going together. I should feel better to have their consent, if I can get yours.
Now, Abba, if you acquiesce in this, please answer immediately. By-by.
From CHARLIE.

The Minneapolis boys play a fine game of ball, but had hard luck and went to pieces yesterday. The home team played a fine game, and deserves the wildest praise.

Mr. Henry Colerick, who is defending the Godfrey estate here against the tax claims of Charles H. Aldrich and others, has just received the information that the Twelfth district attorney has been instructed by Attorney General Brewster to institute suits to prevent the collection of taxes on the lands owned by the Miami Indians in Allen, Tippecanoe, Huntington and Miami counties, where they have been compelled to pay taxes for years, and proceedings will also be begun for recovering all that has been collected. Under the terms of the treaty with the Indians these lands are not taxable, but in the counties named they have been required to pay the assessments the same as citizens. The matter first came to the notice of the interior department in 1880. Judge McBride is expected here next month to further hear the Aldrich-Godfrey tax case, but Attorney General Brewster's order may stop proceedings.

The Texas pony purchased by Dr.
Van Buskirk some time ago ran away a few days ago and defied all attempts to capture it for three days. Finally it was driven into a wood-shed and a man, mounting the roof, hauled the beast in true cow boy style, and then managed to get it under control. No one dared to go near the brute for fear of its heels. The Texas pony is now the property of another man.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. lead&wly.

Caution.

No. 219 Grand Street, Jersey City, N. J., Feb. 28, 1883.—Two months ago I suffered with a very bad cough, which kept me awake all night. I was recommended to put on my chest two Alcock's Porous Plasters. Unfortunately, my druggist persuaded me to try some other so-called porous plaster. I lost my money, for they were worthless and not of the slightest benefit. I then procured Alcock's Porous Plasters and they completely cured me.
